"STATEHOOD DAY"

SAPULPA WILL BANQUET MEM-BERS OF FIRST TWO STATE LEGISLATURES.

November 16th is Date Set. Sight Seeing Excursions to Oil Fields.

Sapulpa, Okla., Nov. 4.—The executive committee of the association of members of the First and Second state legislatures has been called by Senator Clarence Davis, president of the association, to meet in Sapulpa next Monday to make plans for the second annual Statehood Day banquet that is to be held here Nov. 16. This committee consists of Fred P. Branson, of Muskogee, Ben Wilson, of Cereal, Senator Harper S. Cunningham, of Guthrie, W. A. Durant, of Durant, and Eugene Watrous, of Enid.

This annual reunion of the members of the legislature is to become an important historical organization," said Senator Davis today. "Its membership will grow larger year after year and it won't be long until reminiscences that the older members have to relate will be the interesting topnotch points of the state's history.
It is a non-political organization, although I have cheerfully indulged some of my republican friends the permission to hold caucuses and make political medicine while here. But it is not a political day, this sixteenth of November; it's Statehood Day, the anniversary of the gift of liberty to our million and a half of people.
It is appropriate that the men who make our statutes in accordance with our great constitution should reassemble the sixteenth of November each year and banquet and be sociable together."

Sapulpa has some good things in store for the law-givers. She has $1,000 to spend on the banquet. She has chartered a special train that will take the visitors on a trip to the oil regions, even to the heart of the Glen pool district, the largest and most important of its kind in the world. A trip to the largest oil refinery in the state and to the big iron works plant will be interesting features.

ROOSEVELT KILLED SAYS EXTRA EDITIONS IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Okla. City, Nov. 5.—There was con-ring headlines giving credence to an un-had been killed while hunting in the jungles of Africa.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon associated press states that the report that Colonel Roosevelt had been killed was false.

BOARD MAKES

SUGGESTION TO FARMERS

DIVERSIFICATION IS URGED FOR MOST PROFITABLE YIELD AS WELL AS PRICES. BEST PRICE
SINCE THE WAR.

Okla. Planter Has Cause for Satisfaction in Proceeds of Year's Labor.—Annual Estimate Due December 1st.

This being the season between the final development of crop growth and the harvesting, the Oklahoma state board of agriculture makes no detailed report on crop conditions, and their crop correspondents have not been called upon to furnish any information at this time. General information, however, indicates that the average yield per acre of corn and cotton, the two principal crops will turn out to be about as reports have before indicated. Last month the prospective production of corn was shown to be 55.7 per cent of a normal yield as compared with 72 per cent in 1908, or 15.3 per cent below the yield of that year. This condition indicated a yield of something like 18 bushels as the average for the entire acreage growing in corn.
Upon the acreage previously estimated by the board, this would indicate a total production of from 90 to 100 million bushels, which is a very little in excess to the crop of 1908 as estimated by the state board, although with a considerably increased acreage. However, the price of corn has been still higher than that of last season, although the crop of 1908 was sold by the farmer at a very good return per bushel.

Good Grade This Year.

On September 25, the condition of cotton was reported at 54.2 per cent as compared with 67.7 per cent for the preceding season. In comparison therefore, the prospective yield per acre was about 120 pounds of lint upon a 20 per cent less acreage than the preceding year. This would make the total crop of cotton very much below that of 1908 in total number of bales. Since the last issue of this bulletin there has been no positive change in the prospective yield, although in many localities general information indicates that the yield is better than was then expected. Two things are transpiring, however, to relieve the cotton farmer of the disadvantages of the short crop. Last year the average grade in Oklahoma was very low owing to the fact that the gathering season was late and unfavorable. This year up to the present date, the grades are very much better, and as a much larger propo-tion of the crop has been gathered to the present date, it is certain that the average grade for this crop will be at least one-half, if not a full grade better than the previous crop.

Prices Are Highest.

In the second place, the market price of cotton at this time is the highest it has been during the gathering season since the close of the Civil war, having already reached, on the New York Exchange, above 15 points for middling cotton. In many places in Oklahoma the farmer is actually receiving for cotton sold in the seed a price that amounts to 15 cents for lint and $30 per ton for seed. In fact, the price is now fully double that the farmers were receiving one year ago in Oklahoma. Attention is called to these especial features regarding corn and cotton in order to show that in spite of the short yield of both crops, the Oklahoma farmer will receive much larger aggregate returns than he did to last year's crops. The same thing was true of wheat and oats in the earlier part of the season. Feed stuffs of all kinds are higher in value and live stock products are following the general trend. Therefore, with all things considered, the Oklahoma farmer has much cause for satisfaction at the result of his labors this year and he will, where the best methods of farming and individual economy have been practiced, close this season in a much improved financial condition. Debts are being wiped out and the farmer finds himself in possession of a nice little surplus for the enjoyment of himself and his family. This is extremely encouraging and should be made the basis of future calculations, because as has been previously pointed out, the next season bids fair to be a good one and the general indications are that good prices, if not high ones, will continue to prevail.

Board's Suggestion.

The Board suggests the advisability of beginning preparations for a big yield another season. Now is the time, it is urged, to start next year's crop, using those methods of moisture conservation and soil preparation which, when followed by intensive cultivation, which is in its practical analysis only right farming, will always produce good crops in spite of bad weather conditions. The board further advises a continuation of the system of diversification which the Oklahoma farmer is rapidly learning, because there is never any good reason any Oklahoma crops should all be bad at the same time. While it has been the rule to increase the acreage of those crops which have been most profitable, it is hoped that no one crop will be given especial attention over another on this account. Wheat, oats, corn, cotton, hay, and in fact all the products of Oklahoma soil, are profitable and they are most profitable when planted in a reasonable order of diversification.

The board will on the first of December, make its annual estimate of the yield of corn and cotton, and desires at this time to request its crop correspondents in reporting on these subjects to give the very closest and most accurate estimate possible.

BAPTIST STANDARD SOLD.

Twenty-Four Thousand Dollars Paid for the Property.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 4.—That the Texas Baptist Standard, the denominational paper of the Texas Baptists, will hereafter be controlled by no individual, but will be in the hands of a number of persons, representing the churches of the denomination in Texas, is the statement made last night by Dr. J. B. Gambrell, Dr.

Gambrell is the corresponding secretary of the Baptist general convention of Texas.

The paper was bought for $24,- 000 by Dr. R. C. Buckner, Dr. J. B.
Gambrell, Dr. George W. Truitt, H.
Z. Duke and C. D. Fine, "representing a group of others," Dr. Gambrell said last night. This group of owners is to be enlarged, Dr. Gambrell said.
The profits are to be paid to no individual, but are to go to the denomination.

That the paper was bought to keep it from being published in Fort Worth instead of in Dallas is declared to be untrue.

AN HISTORIC PRESS

COMES BACK TO OKLAHOMA. GUY-MAN HERALD OWNS INTEREST-ING RELIC OF EARLY DAYS IN PRINTING INDUSTRY.

The Story of This Strange Career and Travels in Two States.

Guyman, Okla., Nov. 3.—The Guy-man Herald, published in the extreme northwestern corner of Oklahoma, "in what was a few years ago "No Man's Land," claims to have in its office the first newspaper press used in Kansas, which the Rev. Jothan Mecker, a Baptist missionary, took to Leavenworth with him in 1833. Along in the '50s it was used by G. W.
Brown in publishing the Herald of Freedom at Lawrence by S. E. Prouty in the Freeman's Champion, office at Prairie City.

Its late Kansas career included services in the office of the Leocompton New Era, the Chase County Banner and the Cowley County Censor. After that a Sedalia, Mo., newspaper man bought it and took it out of the state, but according to R. B. Quinn, former editor of the Guyman Herald, it again worked its way westward and landed in Liberal in 1883 or 1889 as the property of Lambert Wilstet-adt. In 1890 it was moved to Hardesty, Okla., and used in getting out the Times, a paper succeeded by the Hardesty Herald, which later became the Guyman Herald.

The historic old press was made under one of the earliest patents issued the number of the patent being close to 100 as shown by a plate fastened to the bed of the press, which has been removed since the press was moved to Guyman. It is thoroughly old-fashioned and looks just about like the one that Benjamin Franklin used, according to the pictures in the histories.

A BUSY MONTH

FOR THE STORK

OVER 300 MORE BIRTHS THAN DEATHS THE PAST MONTH IN OKLAHOMA.

Out of 500 Cases of Typhoid Fever, Only 118 Are Fatal.

Vital statistics for October as reported fast being brought within the control of health are encouraging in many respects. The total number of births reported exceeds the deaths by 3,266. During the month there were 4,792 births and 1,526 deaths reported. The total number of cases of diphtheria reported was 118, and out of the number only 29 cases proved fatal, which shows that this disease is to the Oklahoma state commission of medical science. Out of 500 cases of typhoid fever 118 proved fatal. The showing for tuberculosis is gratifying, only 116 cases in the state and 63 deaths.

The showing, considered from the death rate viewpoint in the matter of tuberculosis, might not appeal to the causal reader as being one for gratification. However, the small number of cases in the state with its big population and the healthfulness of the climate, generally known, is the point which may be looked to with satisfaction.

OIL FOUND NEAR COALGATE.

While Drilling Well for Water struck Flow of Oil.

Coalgate, Okla., Nov. 4.—While drilling for water on his farm near this city, John Freeny, an Indian, struck a flow of oil yesterday afternoon. His drill reached the depth of only forty-eight feet when oil-bearing sand was discovered, and after further drilling a slight flow of oil was produced. Freeny moved his drill further away and again found oil.

Immediately a company called the Bromide Oil Company was organized and its secretary has now gone to Guthrie to secure a charter for the company, which will be organized with a capital stock of $50,000 and will develop the find at once.

Near the oil deposit there is situated an excellent manganese iron mine, and it is contemplated using the oil for fuel if it should materialize in sufficient quantity for that purpose. The newly organized company has secured a lease on the ten acres surrounding and including the oil wells and will set to work drilling in a few days.

WRECK KILLS 71 PERSONS.

Motorman Loses Control of Car and Plunges Down Hill.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 4.—Three men were probably fatally injured, sixty-eight men and women were hurt, some seriously, when a crowded street car got beyond control and plunged down a steep hill in the residence section, overturning at the bottom. Most of the injured were school teachers or department store clerks.
W. J. Robb of Oklahoma City is among those probably fatally hurt.

HEALTH HINTS.

By G. T. Howerton,
East Central Normal School.

No doubt many of our ills come from hurried and imperfect mastication. Many years ago some noted physiologist made the observation that most people "dig their graves with their teeth." Recent demonstrations by Mr. Horace Fletcher have renewed the interest in this subject of the virtue of chewing. The "staying habits" of the little child at the table are a model of excellence in this respect, but like many of the good qualities of childhood are broken up by the unwise demands of the "grown ups" of the family, who think they have learned how to do. Almost any child under five will spend 30 minutes at the table to finish any meal if left to his own way. His hustling "business" father and his "industrious" mother have not time to devote more than ten to fifteen minutes to eat about twice as much, while his "big sister" who is carrying five to seven studies in the high school is in almost as big a hurry.
So it is "grab and swallow," and wash it down with a few glasses of water, and rush back to our duties of various kinds. This kind of eating calls for much drinking at meals, and immediately after meals, with a glass of "coca cola" between to ease the headache, or drive away that "tired feeling." If you are interested in this matter of right habits of eating, and wish to teach them to your children read Elbert Hubbard's contribution to Cosmopolitan and Mr.
Fletcher's own say in recent numbers of Ladies Home Journal.

SNAKES AND LIZARDS HIS DIET.

California Druggist Lost in Desert, Demented When Found.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 3.—According to a letter received in this city from Leeland, Cal., Albert Balha, a former Los Angeles druggist, has been rescued from death on the Nevada desert, after wandering five days, demented, and subsisting on the flesh of snakes and lizards and water obtained from the cactus plant. Balha left Leeland, Cal., October 20, for Sand Tanks, on the trail to the Leeland District. He was accompanied by Jack Lampsdale. They ran out of water, and Balha being unable to go further, Lampsdale pushed ahead and reached Leeland. He returned with a searching party, and Balha was found after several days' search.

Balha was on his hands and knees, laughing gleefully, and trying to catch an elusive little lizard no longer than a ten-penny nail. A few drops of water at frequent intervals partially revived him. While suffering from a severe fever, he will recover.

POSTMASTER AND COUNTY JUDGE

Appointment Creates Disturbance
Among the Republicans.

Watonga, Okla., Nov. 3.—George W.
Ferguson, postmaster at Watonga, has been appointed county judge to succeed C. E. Malcomb, lately deceased, after an exciting three day's session of the county commissioners.

Some of the democrats were in favor of Ferguson, who, they claimed, assisted them in their campaign. Two of the county commissioners were democrats.

The republican committee claims that the appointment is against all precedent and illegal, as the law provides that a person cannot hold a government position and a county office at the same time. They claim that they will enjoin the postmaster from taking the position.

Extra Help Required to Read Letters of Inquiry and Answer Them.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 4.—"Several hundred young and old bachelors and scores of middle-aged widowers of various parts of the United States and Canada seem to be under the impression that the National Apple Show inc. is a matrimonial bureau." Said Hon. H. Rice, secretary-manager of that organization, when he finished reading a stack of letters from cities in southern, eastern and western states and provinces. The majority were from men requesting the names of the young women packing fruit in eastern Oregon, who recently advised the management of the show that they are placing their address cards in every box of fruit entered in the various contests at the apple exposition in Spokane the week of November 15. This is the result of a little item published two weeks ago that several young women at Eagle Point, Ore., had adopted this means of securing correspondents. At first the letters came in twos and threes, but now Mr. Rice is receiving bundles of them by every mail; so many, in fact, that additional help has been engaged to read the letters and separate those by wife-seekers from inquiries by prospective exhibitors and others.

OKLAHOMA'S PECAN CROP.

Yield Light But It Is Estimated that the Crop Will Bring $15,000.

Shawnee, Okla., Nov. 2.—Fifteen thousand dollars is the amount estimated for dealers here this fall for pecans. The crop is now being mar-ketted and the yield will be the heaviest for years. Only a small forest exists in Pottawatomie County, but the yield and quality this year is fine. There will be only eight cars of this crop, but that is a good yield according to the number of trees.
The nuts are bringing six cents now on the market and will probably go higher before the season is much further advanced. The Texas crop will be immense this year, probably 800 cars. A great many of the Pottawatomie county farmers cut their pecan trees down some years ago, and now regret it. A good pecan grove will bring in more money compared to the investment than any other crop.

TILT BETWEEN BISHOP AND DOCTOR.

Oklahoma Methodist Annual Conference Supports Hoss' Views.

Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 4.—After two hours' discussion and a spirited debate between Bishop E. E. Hoss and Doctor G. B. Winton, editor of the Christian Advocate, the Oklahoma Southern Methodist annual conference today adopted resolutions memorializing the general conference to take definite action in placing the bishops of the church in control of Vanderbilt University at Nashville.

This is an old bone of contention which has evoked discussion for years. The board of trustees, composed of members of different churches, have declined to recognize the bishops in a supervisory capacity.
Winton is a member of the board and defended its action.

The members of the Conference were with the bishop at the outset and Winton made a hard losing fight. After tilts on the floor the matter seemed settled and there was no display of ill feeling.

Today has been a busy day in District Court; most of the time however, has been taken in the filing of demurrers, complaints, continuances, etc. Verdicts in only three cases having been reached, as follows:

Bank of Francis vs. Geo. Harrison, et al, judgment by default.

W. M. Baughman vs. J. A. Jones, verdict for plaintiff for $212.73. A motion for new trial was over-ruled.

The case of Dunaway vs. H. F. Colfee was being heard this afternoon at time of going to press.

The rapid disposition of the cases on the docket is making a record for Judge Richardson that he should be proud of. At the present rate court cannot last many more days.

THE NEGRO WILL VOTE.

Amendment Fails to Carry in Massachusetts by 16,000 Votes.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 3.—With a few county precincts yet to be heard from, unofficial figures tonight show that the proposed amendment to the state constitution, intended to disfranchise the negroes, has been defeated by 16,155, and that Herring, democrat, for state comptroller, defeated his republican opponent by 9,076. For Judge, Urner, republican, won in the sixth judicial district, while Boyd, democrat, carried the Seventh judicial district and Patterson, democrat, in the First judicial district, was selected a member of the court of appeals.

The state legislature, on joint ballot, judging from the as yet not quite complete returns, will stand 90 democrats and 38 republicans. In both houses democrats, will, apparently, have the power to bring the question of the disfranchisement of the negroes before the people again at the next election.

This Friday night take a little recreation from your week's work and have a good time at the Newspaper Social at Mrs. Wilson's. No admission, but a free-will offering will help the Home Mission ladies on their parsonage fund.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA

They Clog the Pores—Only a Liquid Can Reach the Inner Skin.

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and can not penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the only standard liquid eczema cure, oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription. After ten years of cure after cure, the world's leading skin specialists have accepted this as the true eczema cure.

We ourselves do not hesitate to recommend D. D. D. Prescription at $1.00 a bottle, but for the benefit of those who have never tried the prescription we arranged with the D. D. D. laboratories of Chicago for a special large trial bottle at 25 cents on a special offer now. This first bottle ought to convince every sufferer, and, at any rate, it will surely take away the itch at once. 2

BEING A FATHER

"I know something about the proud feelings that swell a man's breast when first he becomes a father," said Stimson. "I have had them myself. When they came to me I was almost afraid to go out on the street. I feared that I might sink knee-deep in the brick sidewalk, I felt so large and important."

"The whole world smiled when that baby laughed and when he wrinkled his face to cry it seemed that the universe was about to break forth in a sob. Now the baby has grown large enough to wear out six pairs of shoes in a year and his voice is taking on more of the qualities of the callopie."

"One by one," went on Stimson, "the young men who grew up with me have become fathers, evidently in preparation for the census that is to be taken in a short time and desiring to have the communities in which they live show up well in the large book the government will soon issue."

"When a man becomes a father for the first time he is suddenly bereft of any reason he might have possessed previous to that period. I know now that I was that way myself, but there was some reason for it. I was the father of the handsomest, brightest boy in the universe. Many of my friends have felt the same way, but I could see no reason for their elation. Their children were common looking. There was no indication of intelligence about them, so far as I could see. Compared with my child they would not have stood any show at all."

"But I have been compelled to keep the recording angel busy when called upon to admire the children of my friends. My natural complacency as a ready and willing prevaricator has been of great advantage to me."

"Did you ever see such a head as that?" asked Billson a few days ago, assisting his wife in unwrapping something from several yards of white flannel, and exhibiting to me a round thing that looked like a stunted watermelon. "Billson is my next-door neighbor and his wife is a sweet woman, so I went into raptures over the baby's head. Then Billson was encouraged and showed me the baby's arms and legs and feet. I lied cheerfully about each separate limb."

"My attention was called to the extreme width between the child's eyes, and at the same time I could not help noticing the width between its gums, but I did not speak of my discovery. It seemed to me to be a fine feature. If the child should be ailing at any time in the future, as young children are likely to be, it would be comparatively easy to turn him wrong side out and treat the ailment with local applications."

"Another friend called me in one day to see his young hopeful walk, but the child tripped on a figure in the carpet and did a face fall that would have made a German comedian's fortune. I was about to applaud the performance, but restrained myself just in time to preserve our friendship. Any amount of applause I might have heaped however, for the baby again took the center of the stage to call attention to his injury."

"Many of my friends," Stimson proceeded, reflectively, "have told me from time to time that no sum of money would buy their children, and I know they all meant what they said. Millions would not buy one of those children, but nobody will ever offer a cent for one of them. The rich do not want them, since the supply of poodles is still almost equal to the demand. The poor could not buy them, and besides they have enough of their own."

"While I lie cheerfully to my friends about their children I cannot help comparing each child to my own and the other children always suffer by the comparison. My baby's eyes are brighter, his cheeks are softer and his mouth is not like the cavities in the faces of the other children."
